

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

OF THE
LIBRARY in RED-CROSS STREET,
L O N D O N,

Founded by the Rev. DANIEL WILLIAMS;

AND

RULES FOR THE CONDUCT OF IT.

THIS Library was founded in pursuance of the Will of Dr. Williams, who died in the year 1716. With a view to the formation of a Public Library, he had purchased, in his life-time, the valuable Collection of Dr. Bates, to which he directed, by his Will, that his own should be added. Of these a Catalogue was printed, in one volume, 8vo, in 1727, some considerable time before a Public Library was opened; and the Catalogue was published previously to the opening of the Library, as the Preface informs us, in order to induce other munificent and public-spirited persons, and lovers of Literature, to contribute to its augmentation. Considerable donations to this Library have accordingly been made at different times; but not such as have been proportionable to the long space of time which has elapsed since the foundation of the Library, nor to the usual liberality manifested by the Dissenters on such occasions. Although it was known, that Dr. Williams, the Founder of the Library, had left a considerable estate, which was appropriated to various charitable purposes; yet it seems not to have been equally known, that his Trustees were not empowered by his Will to employ any part of the produce of his estate in the purchase of Books for the augmentation of the Library.

It would certainly be honourable to the Dissenters, and conducive to the interests of Literature among them, that a

B

Public

Public Library, chiefly, though not exclusively, appropriated to their use, should consist of a numerous Collection of valuable and well-chosen books. There are many such at present in this Collection; but many others are yet wanting, both antient and modern, in order to increase its utility and estimation as a Public Library. The British Museum, Sion College Library, and the University Libraries, receive great additions of modern books, from its being required by law, that copies of all Works entered at Stationers Hall should be sent to those Libraries. But the Library in Red-Cross Street has no such resource; and it is, therefore, much to be desired, that those liberal-minded persons, who may be inclined to promote an augmentation of the Library, should make such donations for this purpose as they may judge proper. Donations, with this view, may be either in Books or in Money; and it would also be desirable, that such Authors, whether Dissenters or others, as may be inclined to increase the Library, should transmit Copies of their Works to this Collection.

Benefactions of Books may be sent to the Library in Red-Cross Street, and will be entered by the Librarian, with the names of the Donors, in a book appointed for that purpose; and any Donations in Money, which will also be recorded in the same book, may be paid into the hands of Messrs. Langston, Towgood, and Cazalet, Bankers, Clement's-Lane, Lombard-Street.

RULES OF THE LIBRARY.

I. THE Library shall be open from ten o'clock in the forenoon, till three in the afternoon, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, in every week throughout the year, except Christmas and Whitsuntide weeks, and the month of August; and the Librarian (unless prevented by sickness) shall constantly attend the Library at such times. Nevertheless less a Trustee shall have access to the Library whenever he thinks proper.

II. All persons shall be admitted during the appointed hours, upon producing to the Librarian a written order from one of the Trustees, specifying their names, places of abode, and proper additions.

III. No book shall be perused or consulted in the stalls (unless by the special leave of the Librarian to such persons as are well known to him), but shall be taken down, and brought to the desk or table in the Library by the Librarian, and there perused or consulted; and no paper shall be laid on a book when any extracts are made.

IV. No book shall be taken out of the Library except by one of the Trustees on his giving a receipt for it to the Librarian, and such book shall be returned at or before the next Quarterly Meeting; except the same be in the actual possession of such Trustee.

V. The Librarian shall keep a correct account of all books taken out of the Library, with the time when taken, and the name of the Trustee taking the same; and of all applications for books already taken out. Such accounts shall be laid before the Library Committee previously to every Quarterly Meeting of the Trustees,

VI. All books given or purchased for the use of the Library shall be immediately, on such gift or purchase, inserted by the Librarian in the Catalogue, in their proper places, and stamped or marked; and also entered in the Book of Benefactions, in which shall be specified the time when, and the name of the person by whom given: and such Book of Benefactions shall be laid on the table at every Meeting of the Trustees, and of the Book Committee.

VII. The Librarian shall not receive any money or other gratuity from any person for the use of this Library.

N. B. The Figures and Letters at the end of each Title refer to the Class, Shelf, and Number of the Book on the Shelf, according to the Arrangement in the Library : —thus it appears that the first Book in the Catalogue is to be found in the first Class on the Shelf marked F, and is the first Book on the Shelf.
